Agenda

Welcome & update on timelines/engagement (5 min)

- Teacher & staff conversations (12/8 & 12/15)
- Community-wide sessions (12/16 & 12/17)
 - Can think through what community wide meetings will look like next week
 - DCPS wants that plan by the 18th
- Will need a DRAFT for next week
 - Teachers began looking today, in grade bands
 - Will continue next week

What we know now (15 min)

- Data share - information from DCPS survey
- RCC needs for planning questions
 - We have some discretion in building capacity
 - DCPS charging us to try to bring back at least one class per grade level
 - There is flexibility in different grades using different models to bring students back.

- Some rooms are designated for furniture
- Have to consider non teaching staff or service providers
 - Sometimes 3-4 people per office space, are limited in that
- Capacity is roughly 20 classrooms
- Staffing capacity
 - Goes through HR
- Mayor is not going to set a metric for opening/closing
 - They are looking in and across schools
- No outside partnerships (on the table as possibility for adv 4)
 - Means no aftercare, Janney +, etc. for advisory 3
- Waiting to see what the model and staff will be before offering spots
- Do we want an equal amount of teachers per grade?
 - Not necessarily

Deep dive on the instructional models (45 min)

- Overview of each model
- Small group break-outs ---> Each group met and went through each model, discussing pros and cons related to Janney reopening.

Next steps (15 min)

- Teacher feedback and ideas
- Community feedback

Next meeting: December 15, 2020
